Des MacHale : Dublin Wit before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dublin Wit:

A hilarious collection of rich Dublin wit, including jokes, quotations, graffiti, malapropisms, sayings, and anecdotes from internationally famous wits such as Behan, Swift, Shaw, and Wilde, and a host of others such as Dave Allen, R.B. and J.D. Sheridan, Oliver St. John Gogarty, Hugh Leonard, Sean O'Casey, Jimmy O'Dea, Maureen Potter, Tony Butler, Brendan Grace, and many anonymous and apocryphal Dubliners.

Examples of acute observation and quick thinking. I received a previous book [MacHale] wrote, and know him to be meticulous in recording humor. --Irish American News
