you cry reading. You can read this over and over and get more laughs out of it every time." A great way to think about "the perfect manager" is to imagine if John Wayne and Yoda had a baby. Put aside whether that's actually possible or whether getting Yoda pregnant would be a form of "playing God," and just imagine the skills that baby would possess. Keep bringing your mind back to the baby, itself, not the conception part. Lots of people get themselves mentally stuck on the image of John Wayne and Yoda mating. That is not the take-away here....It's tempting to imagine Yoda wearing a cowboy get-up and John Wayne rushing in and sweeping him off of his feet and kissing him, Yoda, on the mouth and neck. You're just wasting your time thinking about that. Could they have a baby? We don't know. Of course they could! There is literally TONS of this stuff in there.

By Matt I am a business major and bought this book for some entertaining reading. I was not disappointed and found this book to be funny and the author keeps it quite lively with the jokes aimed at business people. Overall, I found it refreshing to read a book about business that was not overly academic and contained some pretty good jokes on the profession.
