While the figures of the people are well drawn. the surrounding details are not defined, and are rather free form in the way they are drawn. So many of the coloring books today are being printed on very thin paper and are obviously done on a budget. I would have enjoyed this book more if I could have used water colors and mediums other than colored pencils. There are several pages of illustrations that are very small. I would only buy this for older children interested in fashions, or adults who enjoy period fashions. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. A work of art in itself, not just a coloring book! By Anne E. Christeson This wonderful coloring book is really a work of art. Chris Ousley has perfectly captured the styles and mannerisms of the Edwardians in his pen drawings, and each page could easily stand on its own in black and white. I know that both adults and children will greatly enjoy filling in the pages with colors, and I actually bought four of these, one for each of my great-nieces. Their projects will, I know, remain treasures for their families. I look forward to Ousley's next book of drawings. He is truly a master. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great book By Jeffrey Wilkerson I have known Chris for a number of years. I am glad to see him take that next step as a published author. The pen and ink work is great seeing every stroke he takes to create that special piece of art. I recommend this book to those who enjoy this style art to view and color. I look forward to getting his next book.

“Edwardian Fashion 1910-1920 Styles” is an adult coloring book that features 30 single sided pages of hand drawn illustrations. Fans of vintage fashion and costume dramas like Downton Abbey and Titanic will enjoy coloring these drawings. So step back in time with your markers and pencils to the elegant world of Edwardian and La Belle Epoque inspired fashions. All hand drawn with my old time dip pens and india ink. -Single sided drawings printed on medium weight white paper -Designs are suitable for markers (some pages will require a fine tip), colored pencils, and gel pens.

About the Author Chris is a painter and illustrator living in La Vergne TN with his wife Diane, cat Mini Sue, and dog Lucky Marie. He enjoys painting and drawing in various genres. Landscapes, a city scene, maybe a pet portrait will be on the easel. Head over to his drawing board and some Art Nouveau / Art Deco influenced pen and ink drawings may be there. He especially enjoys fashion drawing. He studied Illustration at The Harris School of Art. Chris is proficient in oil, acrylic, watercolor, gouache, pencil and pen ink. He also enjoys playing keyboards, fitness and riding his motorcycle. Visit me at www.chrisousley.com and <https://www.facebook.com/COusleyStudio/>
