I know she needs to take her new job very seriously, but I thought she would appreciate a quick smile once in a while. She loves it. She hinted we may see some of her own original Haiku's in the church newsletter.Here's one of mine.Smells and ringing bellscall the worshipers to pray.Did Jesus need them?0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Funny and Poignant Feelings in Tiny PackagesBy Phillip A. JohnsonIf you're an Episcopalian or know one, this is a wonderful treat for yourself or gift. It is full of insightful Haiku poems about life in the Episcopal church. Precious!

The Episcopal Church's rituals and foibles, character and characters, beauty and liturgy - seventeen syllables at a time. Stand, sit, kneel, stand, kneel: It's quite a good workout for a Sunday morning. Blessing animals is a joyous day at church. Who has ugly pets? - and many more! Episcopal Haiku will delight Episcopalians with its humor and universally recognizable situations.
