A memoir of a year in the life of a mother whose only child leaves home to attend Dartmouth College, Every Day's a Saturday: Road Trips, Recipes and an Empty Nest is a laugh-out-loud look at the ups and downs of being an Empty Nester, but it's also the story of the evolving relationship between a mother and daughter as they grow and change during their first year of separation. Interspersed with cross-country travel adventures of the culinary sort and a few delicious recipes, Every Day's a Saturday: Road Trips, Recipes and an Empty Nest is filled with equal parts angst and laughter.

About the Author Shelley Campbell Bogaert lives in Aspen, Colorado and Friday Harbor, Washington with her husband John. She graduated with a B.S. in Environmental Design from the University of California at Davis, and an MBA from San Diego State University. After working in the commercial interior design field for many years, she "retired" to become a stay-at-home mom. Now an artist focusing on sculpture and photography, she and her husband also own and operate Lakedale Resort in the San Juan Islands of Washington State.
