Every photo has a saying by Thomas or other authors to really appreciate life.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. the bestBy Chuck St. LouisKinkade as always is the best modern day painter. Most anyone can look at his work and they know the painter. He took painting to a new level. Depression, alcohol, and a divorce caught up to him. I wonder if some of his early work with the initials of his wife and children are worth more money?3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Nice Keepsake.By NebraskaBeautiful illustrations, great family memories, peaceful settings, great reading with positive thoughts to share with others instead of watching television or being on the computer.

"Fill your home with beautiful aromas. Have you ever noticed how a single whiff of a familiar fragrance has the power to carry you instantly back to your childhood?" One of America's best-loved artists, Thomas Kinkade is known as the "Painter of Light." In his new book Family Traditions, Kinkade's beautiful paintings complement his own words and those of other great writers and thinkers, including Margaret Mead, Ben Franklin, and Ralph Waldo Emerson, to celebrate the bonds and traditions of family. Families keep us grounded with subtle reminders of our heritage and, at the same time, serve as a springboard to help us embark on new adventures. Our families provide love, support, and strength. Whatever our family tree looks like, Family Traditions recognizes the unbreakable ties and irreplaceable relationships we share with these special people in our lives, and reminds readers to "Make home a priority in life. Invest time and energy in creating a warm refuge for yourself and your family, a place where everyone can feel nurtured and cared for, safe and protected, free to be exactly who you are".-Thomas KinkadeCopyright 2005 Thomas Kinkade, The Thomas Kinkade Company, Inc., Morgan Hill, CA

About the AuthorThomas Kinkade, the celebrated Painter of Light, is the most widely collected artist in the world. His tranquil, light-infused paintings affirm the basic values of family, home, faith in God, and the luminous beauty of nature.www.thomaskinkade.com
