It is like reliving all the outfits I sewed for my five daughters. Lots of "bling" in the purses, ear rings and shoes for each outfit. The theme changes for each page. Everything from sock monkeys to vintage aprons to Victorian hats and the list goes on. Let your imagination and creativity go wild. Prismacolor and Faber Castell go on like butter. Included is a PDF file of all pages for those who need heavier paper if they work in water based pencil/ pens...a real bonus. I only have 5 pages to go and will really miss this delightful adventure. Money well spent. NO filler pages, just great designs on every page. Thank you, Marjorie Sarnat. 10 of 10 people found the following review helpful. Imaginative, Surprising, and Whimsical fashion collages that will captivate and inspire you! Printed one per page. By Jackie Cooper The artwork in this book is brilliant in conception, adeptly and meticulously executed creating phenomenal and surprising collage illustrations that will inspire you and take your creativity to new levels. Through 35 uniquely themed the intricate collages she has taken clothing and added captivating, unparalleled combinations of elements then embellished the backgrounds, scenery, borders, and even adorning the cloths .This is a must have book for your coloring library, you will want to color every single captivating, stunning illustration and most of the images inside the book even better than the cover picture. This is not a Creative Haven coloring book the paper is thinner and the pages are not perforated, however this book rivals her other coloring books. This book is a perfect gift for school[ aged children and adults, colorists of all ages]. 35 illustrations printed one per page (the back of each page is blank) on bright white, light weight paper.<sup>2</sup> All markers and Gel Pens I tested leach through the paper easily, I place a sheet of paper under the page I am coloring to prevent damage to the next page.<sup>3</sup> Other books by this artist include (Creative Haven Cats) (Creative Haven Owls) I own both and love her imaginative art work.<sup>4</sup> The illustrations are made up of Imaginative combinations and include: Dreamy Prom Night, Key to my Heart, Zebras and Wild Stripes, Tribal Chic, Giraffe Fashionista, Dots Adorable, Elegant Elephants, Flower Power Jeans, Rock n Roll Poodle Skirt, Meet Me at the Beach, Beads and Baubles, French Dressing, Buttons and Bow Ties, Paisley Days, High Top Pop Sneakers, Proudly Peacock, Meet a Cheetah, Glad I'm Clad in Plaid, Come to an Ugly Sweater Party, Summer in the City, Cowgirl Couture, Tropical Island, Dapper Dots and Dashes, Vintage Aprons, Sock Monkey Business, Petal and Pedals, Flirty Skirty, Hang on to your Hat, Modern Artwear, Chantilly Cats, Boho Chic, Hoot Couture, Raining Cats and Dogs, Garden Party, Sweet Dreams,<sup>6</sup> of 6 people found the following review helpful. Glorious Fashion Designs in Marjorie Sarnat's distinctive and beautiful styleBy iiiiireader[[VIDEOID:a6dded636c8cf9b307c4d8559b674123]]I have both of Marjorie Sarnat's previous adult coloring books ("Cats" and "Owls") which were released under the Creative Haven label. This new offering, "Fanciful Fashions" has been released under a new label, Color Ways. The book is filled with 35 fashion related designs. They range from Prom to Cowgirl, from Beachware to Sleepware. Each designs is a collage of the particular outfit and its accessories put against background designs that enhance the spirit of the overall fashion.While the book contains the same beautiful style of artwork by Ms. Sarnat as my Creative Haven books, the pages are definitely thinner and are not perforated. They are printed on one side with the backside blank. All of my pens and markers seep through the paper and pencils make indents on the next page. While they included a page you can cut out and use to keep ink from bleeding through, I suggest using heavy cardstock and/or freezer paper below the sheet you are working on. I want to be sure that my backing page will be strong enough to keep my designs safe.I am lucky enough to have bought my copy early enough to quality for the limited time availability of the free .PDF of all of the artwork pages. I love this as I will be able to size and print the designs on the paper of my choice. I wish more designers made this option available - it is a fabulous enticement to purchase the book.I love that the artist ends the book with a quote from Coco Chanel: "Fashion is not something that exists in dresses only. Fashion is in the sky, in the street, fashion has to do with ideas, the way we live, what is happening." I certainly hope, in the case with Ms. Sarnat's designs, is that many more adult coloring books are on their way. I love her sense of style and use of detail to give the colorist a wonderful adventure.The designs included in this book are (in the order shown in my video): Dreamy Prom Night, Key to My Heart, Zebras and Wild Stripes, Tribal Chic, Giraffe Fashionista, Dots Adorable, Elegant Elephants, Flower Power Jeans, Rock 'n' Roll Poodle Skirt, Meet Me at the Beach, Beads and Baubles, French Dressing, Buttons and Bow Ties, Paisley Days, High Top Sneakers, Proudly Peacock, Meet a Cheetah, Glad I'm Clad in Plaid, Come To An Ugly Sweater Party, Summer in the City, Cowgirl Couture, Tropical Island, Dapper Dots and Dashes, Vintage Aprons, Sock Monkey Business, Petals and Pedals, Flirty Skirty, Hang on to Your Hat, Modern Artwear, Chantilly Cats, Boho Chic, Hoot Couture, Raining Cats and Dogs, Garden Party, and Sweet Dreams.

From the Author"As a coloring book artist I enjoy delighting the colorist with beautiful and detailed themes on every page. Each drawing displays a profusion of patterns and fanciful settings for the colorist to bring to life. I hope that the experience of coloring my artwork is inspiring, fun, and helps release everyday stress." - Marjorie
