1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great book for kids and adults!By Nora L.Amazing cute black and white drawings and a really interesting take on the candidates for 2016 election. The Trump like elephant was loud and obnoxious while the Hillary Clinton esq donkey was a bit sad. It all rang very true! The book was over all fun and I enjoyed reading it to my nephew!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Joy to readBy Rishan T.Very accessible and enlightening meditation on the 2016 presidential contest, from the perspective of a group of animals residing in a farm. The clash between the donkey and the newcomer "elephant" is quite captivating. Jac Lahav is clearly a gifted artist and his drawings are superb. A joy to read and look at.

This sassy illustrated satire of the 2016 Elections is an epic poem with over 100 cute black and white drawings. Farmtastic is a smart and fun way to get kids talking about the 2016 United States election. This year was different, 2016! Somebody new came onto the scene! A creature showed up, he came in the barn. He stood on a stool and spun them a yarn. He started to yap and he started to rant. He said Put me in charge, I'm a big Elephant! He said It's my turn, I'll say it quite plain. It's time that we made this OLD Farm Great AGAIN! So begins the epic tale of Farmtastic when a new character shows up to challenge the status quo. The whole farm gathers around to vote on who their next leader should be! Will it be the loud-talking, newcomer Elephant? Or the more conservative political Donkey? FARMTASTIC is a whimsical mash-up of fun Dr. Seuss-esque poetry and the politics of Animal Farm. Filled with politics, social issues, and insults, this book questions the concept of facts, and asks how we can make sense of today's presidential candidates. This kids book uses satire to poke fun of the current 2016 presidential candidates, both the HUGE claims of Donald Trump to the political maneuvering of Hillary Clinton. How should we make sense of this wacky 2016 Presidential Election? With all the arguments and mean words we see on TV, how can we talk to our kids about this historical moment in United States politics? Jac Lahav has created a wonderful satire, poking fun of both Donald J Trump and Hillary R Clinton while trying to simplify some of the most pressing topics today. This book touches on Lobbying, Immigration and Social Welfare, to name but a few. With its wacky illustrations and witty rhyming verse Jac Lahav tries to simplify the current 2016 electoral process for kids and adults alike.
