Cultural InsightBy cleancook04During my fiance's recent Cancer tests we were in need of some common diversion, and our love of cats (especially our own!!!) led us to to purchase on a whim, "Fashion Cats" !!We laughed till tears, and the simple and caring nature of the pictures buoyed us through our medical event, but that is only the beginning of the insights into the authors culture, morality and artistic needlework, allowing us in a short period of time to be transported to an experience that is now a very personal and happy memory we still try to share with our family!Many thanx to for helping us to find such a rare gem, and congratulations to the author Takako Iwasa for this insight into her life and culture!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. This lady is probably crazy, but that's okay. ...By KristiThis lady is probably crazy, but that's okay. I'm crazy, and so this book gives me the hope that I, one day, too can dress furry animals in unspeakable attire for my own amusement... because God told me to.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Gets the best looks as a coffee table book for a 30 year old male. By Zergonomics This is the weirdest coffee table book i own, and i absolutely adore it. Its also quite charming :)

In the bestselling tradition of Stuff On My Cat and I Can Has Cheezburger, comes a truly pioneering title in Haute Cature, in which two supermodel cats don the latest in Japanese cat fashion. Prin and Koutaro are two cats who don't get out of bed for less than the best catnip and 10,000 American dollars. They aren't just cute, they are extraordinarily cute and know how to make Haute Cature look as good as it should. Here they don the latest Japanese Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter collections, featuring gorgeous, flowered paw bracelets, lace veils, tuxedo fronts, wool capes with matching caps, and much more. The perfect gift for any cat or fashion lover!
