Terran Moffat : First Bass and Other Stories: 99.44% True Tales of an Outdoorswoman before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised First Bass and Other Stories: 99.44% True Tales of an Outdoorswoman:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great Storyteller! Outdoor humor. By Steven M. Ward Wow! This is a fun read. Any female who hunts deer with a 12 gauge shotgun loaded with magnum slugs is my kinda girl. Terran

Moffat is a great storyteller and her outdoor adventures will have you rolling with laughter. As an old hog hunter myself, her bass fishing stories gave me a hankering to slip out on the lake and find me some lunkers. This isn't your usual girl in the woods story (Are there any?), the author knows how to get out there, put on the cammo, get mucked up and have some fun. Way to go Terry, I really enjoyed your book. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. An equally entertaining and compelling read. By Mary Allen I thoroughly enjoyed these tales of camping, hunting, fishing, and horses. They left me wanting more. The voice was fresh, believable, and full of life. I definitely recommend this book. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Poignant, warm and personal. By Sam B. Wagner Beautifully told short stories of friendships, pets, milestones and things intangible. Very pleasant and entertaining. Guaranteed to bring a smile and tweak a memory. Each short story is an intact adventure. Worth the time.

There are no Death Stars or sparkling vampires in this book, or enchanted swords, or mushy, six-hanky chick lit tales. No. Instead, there is lots of mud, dirt, animal hair, the smell of dead worms baking in a hot car, and maybe a giggle or two. Come along on these six zany 99 44/100th percent true tales of the outdoor life. Action! Adventure! Fishing! Horses! Little sisters! The perfect bathroom book for those longer.... breaks. DEER WARS: "Shoot zee deer, Terra. Why are you not shooting zee deer? Zhey are eating mein garten! Kill zhem all!" What happens when you have a landlord determined to eliminate an entire species from Tewksbury Township. FIRST BASS: I undergo Bass Basic Training. SHERRY AND THE RACCOONS: Have a hair-raising time with the Moffat sisters on safari in the wilds of northwesternmost Sussex County, NJ. A GOOD HORSE: He was skinny. He made ugly faces. He was free, and he was my first horse. CAMPING WITH MOM: A lifetime legacy of memories. THE DEER LITTLE TAIL: "My first deer, Terra-Terra! My first deer!" Does a road kill count as a First Deer? My housemate at the time certainly thought so, since she saw it first. But then...
