Regina Howard : First Lady and The Hat before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised First Lady and The Hat:

First Lady and the Hat is a coming of age story about a teenage girl raised in a christen community. Her life is built on the love, support, trust and forgiveness, of the church, while she is raised by her grieving father; as a pree teenager

Yonnie learns that not every thing in life is as it's supposed to be. Read how she learns some of her strange feelings and oddness are connected to old stories, which have left open wounds within the church that have come back like helpful ghost. Yonnie makes it through her adolescence in one piece with her church community to aid her. You can see a birds eye view for yourself, as she tells this humors story of characters within her church community that she loves so much, all while encountering small mysteries, and finding true life's treasures! .
