Do donkeys go snort, roar, or squeak? Mix and match animals and noises to create the most unlikely looking creatures in this hilarious split-page novelty book.

Ideal for teaching children about the animal kingdom. -- Child EducationYou cant beat a book that can be endlessly fiddled with. -- The ObserverAbout the AuthorMiranda has lived in France, Italy and London. She has always loved art, and sold her first illustration at the age of 25. It was of a restuarant called 'La Strega' (The Witch) and is hanging there still. She loves travel and enjoys having fun. She chose to write and illustrate specifically for children because children's books are a way of passing on knowledge while providing entertainment for others and herself.
