The artwork is pretty good, except that a lot of them are incomplete with the designs hitting/running past the edge of the pages. The paper quality is not good for colored pencils, it is tannish in color and very coarse - which will mow down a good colored pencil in no time - plus it won't allow for much blending. It reminds me of the old manila paper we used in grade school, back in the 60's - only not as yellow. I was pretty disappointed in this as a coloring book. No reviewers had posted any pictures they had colored, so I wasn't entirely sure what to expect. At the time I ordered it, what reviews there were were very positive, so I was hoping for more. The designs are printed on one page, with a "story" facing it, and that ink shows through the back side in a grayish tone in places. My pictures should show that, I posted four, hopefully they will all show up. Markers bleed through, and spread. Better quality paper and complete drawings and I'd be loving this book!!!

Flipping The Bird is the 4th book in Joseph Shivery's series, The Broken Mind of Joe's Ink. This Bird-themed coloring book illustrates and tells stories about Joe's unique world of birds, which includes many of the birds' distinctively strange friends, like the others you've come to know and love in the previous volumes. Enjoy your visit in and around the magical Shroom Fields as you color Joe's 50 remarkable new drawings! Each drawing is accompanied by its own special story that will let you in and make you feel part of Joe's Broken Mind world. Please share your colored works with Joe and his fans on Facebook (information and link is included inside the book).
