Rev Heidi L Hunt : Fly times with bOObie Rhymes (My Life, a view from the edge...) (Volume 1) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fly times with bOObie Rhymes (My Life, a view from the edge...)

and know that she is speaking from her heart. She is truly a courageous and adventurous woman who faces every challenge in life with gusto!

1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Love it! By barbara schorzman Way to go girl! So proud of you for chasing your dreams. What a fun book to read. Can't wait for vol. 2 Yay bOObies!

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Hunt is a liar and thief! Her positive reviews are demanded from her friends. The last paragraph is her quote from facebook. By WCWC says: Are you sure about what you have written? Do some web searches and you will see, especially the file mentioned below. Update; did not print an important link placed in this review. It shows how Heidi Hunt tried to deceive the courts, and place blame on others. (This is just one such case) Do a web search for WSBA file number 12-02412. In this document and book she mentions a "cabin". This "cabin" was a Park model Recreational Vehicle. I said was, because not long after she fled to Australia with her clients money the real owners came and repossessed it. I only live a stones throw away- It was humorous watching them throw everything into the yard before they pulled it out! Stay tuned, and DONT BUY this or any other book from this person!!! She is as phony as a U.S. $13.00 bill. If you purchase this item you will be lining the pockets of a crooked lawyer who "stole" clients money and fled the state of Washington for Australia. I notice her name has Rev. before it. If that's supposed to stand for Reverend then I must be an Angel watching her spread her destruction. (sic) The monies to print these books could very well have come from her victims. It wasn't hard to find out the reviews about her other book are from her friends or old school chums, and also stumbled upon an old employee quote who said she would write her own reviews for her law office. Ha Ha Because of all this, this book shouldn't even be rated, nor should Miss Hunt be allowed to profit from it! I would challenge Heidi Hunt to prove that she really is sick with M.S. as she states in this Washington State Bar Association office of disciplinary counsel file; (this grievance was filed by a Washington State Superior Court judge against Heidi Hunt). [...] This lady is jet setting around the world on lies, cons, and the money any idiot would spend on her fairy tale books. I urge everyone not to purchase this book. It will just line the pockets of a TRULY legalized liar. She's a fraud!

Reviews of Heidi Hunt Law firm; 3 years ago- After reading the positive reviews, I thought I was in good hands, but after going through the process, it seems the only thing this Law firm is up to speed on is the 'process.' Maybe it's the case that the people who have bad experiences don't always post their reviews... They constantly come to court late, even in the final trial dates. They caused me to miss a court date, calling me and telling me that they had rescheduled my date, then I got a call from their office a few days after the scheduled date, and a very rude girl was telling me how it's my fault I missed my dates. I don't believe that this law firm really has its customers best interests in mind as their approach is to not prepare the customer or witnesses all that much but rather their take on preparation is, "I like to have the responses come natural and not seem like they have been fabricated/prepared." This seems like laziness, and them not wanting to spend time with their customers to prepare them for a prosecutor or judge. They do not spend time with their customers to make them feel at ease through out the process. -From my experience, they overbook themselves to the degree that they could care less if they lose a case at your expense. -In the court room, they seem to win cases by luck, not having carefully thought out their plan of action for the defense, but rather in 'hoping' that the prosecutor will do or say certain things so that they can use the information they expect the prosecuting side to submit into evidence. All in all, I would suggest saving your money and finding a law firm that is willing to spend the time to prepare you and submit the proper evidence for the case in your defense rather than hoping that the other side will submit the evidence you require.

8 months ago- I paid $3000 and hired an attorney named Cassandra (that now no longer works there) who I felt would do a great job. I received a DUI for pulling a car off the shoulder of the road into a parking lot on my birthday. The police officer knew I wasn't driving because he stated in the report he saw me get out of the passenger seat and walk around to the drivers seat to move the car. At my first hearing I got a call from Cassandra telling me that she had a more important case to attend that day and would be sending someone in her place. A gentleman showed up which I don't even remember his name but he was brand new and I didn't feel the confidence in him that I had felt in Cassandra. Long story short Cassandra promised to be there for the next one and I never saw her again. I got the gentleman every time and although he was very nice he didn't fight for me. I had a very good chance of having it dropped since I never entered the roadway but instead took a plea bargain. This all occurred about 2 years ago. So today I call the office to advise them that I received a notice for sentencing on the same case. Apparently it is just a review and in order to have them involved I would need to pay another $500! I advised her that I never even received what I purchased for $3000 and that I was not happy with their services. I then went on to ask her if they could at least provide me with the information from the courts that dictated the conditions that I was supposed to have met by no to make sure that they have all been completed and I was hung up on. The overall experience with this company was absolutely terrible!

They played upon my fears and ignorance of the legal system at the time and charged me $1300 for a NO TURN SIGNAL. They also said they would watch to see if the cops ever filed my potential reckless.a.) You know if they file it - they mail you a letter with your court date. Its not like its in a secret computer somewhere and they say `SURPRISE! - you didn't show up; now there's a warrant out for your arrest'.b.)

The no turn signal they entered a DEFERAL without asking if it was ok with me. 1 year no tickets. I own a Porsche TT - OF COURSE I'm going to get a ticket! A deferral are you kidding me??? That could have easily been thrown out. This law firm is the HEIDI HUNT GROUP. The DUI Away guys on the radio. Never never never use them. Please spread the word about what idiots they are. They admitted to me in an email that one of their attorneys was fired for embezzlement - and they still won't give me a partial refund! All I want is $1000 back - that seems fair to me. Even if it were a BS result, they did handle the no turn signal - and the going rate for something like that is typically $300. I wanted to know why her office refused to return my calls when they said they'd 'call me right back'..... She wrote:"...will continue just fine with or without your tickets- do you really believe traffic tickets make or break me? I do felony trials state wide? Keep your friends, we don't want them...and you can quote that." All people who think they can buy their way out following the law. It used to be defending people who are wife beaters and drug dealers that kept me up at night. It turns out it's people who name themselves crashintoash that keep me awake at night eight years later. When you or one of your friends kill yourself or someone else I won't have to live with it. That makes me smile. Heidi Hunt- I could give a list of names Charity but every time I tell you guys what is going on it only comes 100 times faster. I feel very betrayed by people. I asked for reviews of my books but less than 10 of you guys did. I've had to pull them all because the haters are reviewing them and saying horrible things about me. I really have got to see what people are truly made of with all of this. Lisa is right, there are many of you who need to check your souls...

This is a collection of rhymes about life and love and beer and bong hits and bOObies, but mostly bOObies. Sometimes offunsive, sometimes bOObietastic, but always a good time. FLY TIMES WITH bOObie RHYMES is as entertaining as watching a train wreck but less addictive than crack. This the most fun as you can have with bOObies, legally. This book is intended for adult kids only and is strictly not for use with well parented kids.
