Theo Mathew : Forensic Fables by O (Wildy Classics) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Forensic Fables by O (Wildy Classics):

Forensic Fables appeared first in the Law Journal and then in book form between 1926 and 1932. They were published anonymously, but their authorship was quickly guessed. The literary style and the pictorial delineation were alike unmistakable. They were the work of Theo Mathew composed in his study on the ground floor at the back of 31

Cornwall Gardens. They show his wit in all its maturity. Theo Mathew had a deep respect for the traditions of his profession and great affection for so many of those who practised it. This book is evidence of both.

About the Author Theo Mathew was born in 1866. He was the author of The Practice of the Commercial Court and for some years was Editor of Commercial Cases, Recorder of Margate from 1913 to 1927 and of Maidstone from 1927 to 1936, Theo Mathew was a Bencher of Lincoln's Inn and was due to become Treasurer when he died in the summer of 1939.
