V. N. Bud Phillips : Forgive Me Father, for I Have Grinned: True Stories, Anecdotes, and Epitaphs from the Congregation before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Forgive Me Father, for I Have Grinned: True Stories, Anecdotes, and Epitaphs from the Congregation:

Religious gaffes are served up in a family-friendly style in this riotous collection of bona fide stories and puns related to traditions of worship. Amusing anecdotes of comical church incidents are featured, as are examples of Christians who have been given the boot for poorly chosen words uttered in front of their congregations. A section on cemeteries looks at bizarre, witty, and often brazenly frank tombstone inscriptions such as "He was so cold natured / Warm in life he was not. / Now it is believed he's very warm, / In a place where it's very hot!"—and, if possible, the people and stories behind them.
