Allan Ahlberg : Friendly Matches (Viking children's poetry) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Friendly Matches (Viking children's poetry):

A collection of football poems covering a range of different aspects of the game, for example, referees, team talk, the 1966 World Cup, written in different verse forms (including sonnets, rhyming couplets and narrative poems).

An appealing collection of football poems covering many aspects of the game, written in a wide variety of verse forms. About the Author Allan Ahlberg has published over one hundred books including the classic Greenaway-winning picture books, THE JOLLY CHRISTMAS POSTMAN and EACH PEACH PEAR PLUM, illustrated by his late wife, Janet. His poetry collection, HEARD IT IN THE PLAYGROUND won the Signal Poetry Award. Allan lives in London. Fritz Wegner has been illustrating children's books for many years, as well as painting postage stamps, designing and teaching. Fritz lives in London.
