Edwin Almeida : Funny Short Stories: Real Estate Agents Share Their Funny Short Stories before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Funny Short Stories: Real Estate Agents Share Their Funny Short Stories:

Funny Short Stories is a combination of funny short stories that the authors, Edwin Almeida and Sue Elliott have personally experienced as Real Estate Agents working in Sydney, Australia. 127 pages of funny short stories and photos depicting scenes from actual events involving tenants or landlords. Section One – Animal Behavior: what on earth could Chapter Titles like Ripped Shirt and Band-Aids, Super-Dog, Creatures That Cause Depression, Ben (as in Michael Jackson's famous song) and Ben's Friends Share A Cuppa, Dogs Habits and Cat Habits have to do with Real Estate? Section Two – Bodies Exposed: as this is The “X” Rated Section, we probably shouldn't 'expose' any more details, ha ha, especially about the Gorgeous Blonde or the rather cute guy wearing Section Three – Tales About Landlords and Owners: includes The Nigerian Money Scam, She Treats Me Like God and Time Warp. The Finale of our book “Funny Short Stories, Real Estate Agents Share Their Funny Short Stories” Section Four – The Essential Love Story: dedicated to Fred and Ginger. We have not yet experienced a more heart warming, beautiful and funny story than this one to complete the book. You might be thinking none of these titles sound like they could have anything to do with Real Estate, so why have these two Real Estate Agents created this book of Funny Short Stories. Well we hope you will be enticed to buy, read our book and you will find out why. Edwin's Real Estate Agency, Just Think Real Estate, has an Australian version of this book that is part of their marketing. Books are given as gifts at opens, business and networking meetings. The agency receives great interest and because of the book the agency regularly brings in new business. Maybe your business could market itself in a similar way. The book has our contact details, if you have any ideas or questions we would love to hear from you. Again our details are in the book “Funny Short Stories, Real Estate Agents Share Their Funny Short Stories”.

About the Author Sue Elliott: Sue has worked full time in the Real Estate Industry for twelve years enjoying a number of roles and completing her Full Real Estate License five years ago. Her roles have included Customer Relations Manager, Educator, Sales, Office Administration and Property Management. After completing her school studies Sue landed her first position as a Share Clerk working in a Stock Brokering Firm, then graduated to International Banking and Accounting. After three years it was time for a new challenge with her accounting skills she landed a managerial position for an Industrial Roofing Company. This Sue and her husband expanded into the area of Industrial Maintenance for twenty five years, contracting to the three largest Oil Companies in Australia (Caltex Oil [Texaco], Shell and BP). Having a few investment properties, Sue's next interest was Real Estate. Commencing in Customer Relations, then Sales. Together with Edwin (Almeida) they commenced a start up Real Estate Agency. Then Sue was head hunted by a Property Developer but two years later was lured back to Real Estate with Edwin and his agency 'Just Think Real Estate'. Sue currently manages the trust accounts for Just Think Real Estate for both Sales and Property Management. She juggles her part time position with being a full time carer for her aging mother and grandmother to three grandchildren with the fourth on the way. Sue's remaining time is turned to her creativity of writing. Sue and Edwin are International Authors and soon to be Publishers for their Australian market.
