Great!By Forestwombat04i can not say that i do not like this i love garfield it's my passion bigger than i thought but fun to read.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Bananas !!!By Denise MoiescuThis book was for my 13 year old daughter who goes crazy over all Garfield books and she raved about it. To me it seemed a bit simplistic, but the effect on my teen- priceless.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Some good comics dropped.By JesThis is a collection of comics that were dropped for some reason. Some of them are quite good. Like all the Apple jokes. And Apple needs to laugh at itself.

Dumpster Diving!One cat's trash is another cat's treasure, and in this all-new book, Garfield creator Jim Davis has collected the best of the worst: never-before-seen rejected comic strips, questionable covers, silly sketches, gross gags, and over-the-top, over-the-edge outtakes sure to offend just about everyone. So hold your nose and dig in!

About the Author Jim Davis was born on July 28, 1945, in Marion, Indiana. He later attended Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, where he distinguished himself by earning one of the lowest cumulative grade point averages in the history of the university. (Incidentally, a fellow classmate named David Letterman earned the other). The Garfield strip was born on June 19, 1978, syndicated in forty-one U.S. newspapers. Today it's syndicated in more than 2,100 newspapers worldwide with more than 200 million readers, leading Guinness World Records to name Garfield The Most Widely Syndicated Comic Strip in the World. Davis has had many successes with Garfield, including four Emmy Awards for Outstanding Animated Program and induction into the Licensing Hall of Fame (1998), but his most prized awards are from his peers in the National Cartoonist Society: Best Humor Strip (1981 and 1985), the Elzie Segar Award (1990), and the coveted Reuben Award (1990) for overall excellence in cartooning.
