When he sits around the house, He sits AROUND the houseBy Ross NoirI read this book a few hundred times being one of the only entertaining books in my grandmothers old study and my intro to Garfield. I was surprised how much I remembered after not reading for 15 years or so.Love it, while some of the frames are awfully timely some really do have a timeless quality.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. number one fat catBy RustyGreat cartoons about a heavy weight cat if you have followed this strip as much as I have you will love looking back on America's number one fat cat. Thank you0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Second Helping Of LaughsBy MoonstoneOnce again, America's favorite fat cat delivers the funny! Whether he's wolfing down lasagna, playing Punt the Pooch or attacking the mailman, you can't help but laugh out loud at this notoriously crabby tabby. I keep this book handy whenever I need a good laugh. Whether you're a fan of Garfield or if you just love fat cats, you won't go wrong with this book.

He sleeps late and wakes up grouchy. He hates joggers, beats up dogs, and shreds his owner. He's cynical, witty, urbane, and sometimes downright mean. But best of all, he's back, better than ever, to delight cat-lovers and cat-haters alike.

From the PublisherIf you didn't get enough Garfield from the first book, here's the second in the continuing Garfield saga! He's still eating like a horse and being as lazy as a slug, but there are a few new things to discover about his world. Poor Jon can never seem to get a date and the love of his life is Dr. Liz, Garfield's vet! How many times will Jon have Garfield poked and prodded by Dr. Liz, so he can try and win her heart? Too many, if you ask Garfield! We also meet Irma, the disheveled waitress in the unnamed diner with the questionable food. Why Jon and Garfield frequent the place, we will never know.....Katherine ClarkeFrom the Inside FlapHe sleeps late and wakes up grouchy. He hates joggers, beats up dogs, and shreds his owner.
