Jim Davis : Garfield's Book of Cat Names before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Garfield's Book of Cat Names:

All Inane names no self-respecting cats would have," declares Garfield with gusto! He goes on to offer a book that's "simple (like Odie)" and is filled with "lots of pictures" (mostly of Garfield himself). The lists are alphabetical and "shorter than Mini Me." Finally, he admonishes us people: "Don't listen to anybody else...They aren't cats."In this short and utterly cute book of pet names, Garfield kept me laughing with his witty comments on each name he lists. There are 23 categories of names in this 96 page book, including "Pretentious" and "Sidekicks" and "Mighty Morons!" Even if you don't need to name a pet, if you like Garfield or just like to laugh, then this is a good book to buy. Throw it in with some other items and give it to yourself as a little gift! I did, and I'm having a great time reading and sharing this book! Happy reading!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Garfield book of Cat NamesBy S. JacksonI guess I didn't realize first of all that the book was so small. That's not really the problem. I bought this for my animal shelter, at which I volunteer. I needed a book of names to help them as they name cats and kittens. It's kind of silly the way Mr. Davis has it organized, like names of foods, etc. Some of the names are good, but some are so silly. I was going to return the book, but went ahead and gave it to the shelter. I was disappointed.

Is your cat cowering behind a dumb name? Garfield has the answer! Muffin. Kitty. Snowball. All inane names no self-respecting cats would have – if it weren't for the inane humans who thought of them! Now Garfield offers the definitive guide to giving your cat a cool, creative name to be proud of. Music Names, Food Names, Foreign Names, even names to avoid... historical or hysterical, they're all here! So, start reading - and find the right name for your fabulous feline!

About the Author Jim Davis was born on July 28, 1945, in Marion, Indiana. He later attended Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, where he distinguished himself by earning one of the lowest cumulative grade point averages in the history of the university. (Incidentally, a fellow classmate named David Letterman earned the other). The Garfield strip was born on June 19, 1978, syndicated in forty-one U.S. newspapers. Today it's syndicated in more than 2,100 newspapers worldwide with more than 200 million readers, leading Guinness World Records to name Garfield The Most Widely Syndicated Comic Strip in the World. Davis has had many successes with Garfield, including four Emmy Awards for Outstanding Animated Program and induction into the Licensing Hall of Fame (1998), but his most prized awards are from his peers in the National Cartoonist Society: Best Humor Strip (1981 and 1985), the Elzie Segar Award (1990), and the coveted Reuben Award (1990) for overall excellence in cartooning.
