Garfield ate a ton and you don't know about it. Christmas has begun, then ended. New year's started, then ended. Jon failed on dates, Garfield has done nothing. Well, he has kicked odie and messed with dogs, watched t.v. ... Well you get the point. You should totally read this and you will laugh of Jim Davis`s cleverness. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Garfield Rules! By Customer The world would be a better place if we learned a few lessons from a cartoon cat. All Garfield books are worth having and re-reading again and again for laughs. One of the genuine FUNNY characters that has been created without catering too much to the politically correct brigade. Keep up the great work Mr Davis and thanks for giving us something to laugh at. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Garfield Shovels In the Fun! By Customer Yes another helping of Garfield's views on life, Jon's dating life with Liz and more importantly - food! If you're looking for even more hilarity, interaction with the neighborhood dogs and gluttony unbounded, Garfield is your 'go to' cat. As an avid reader of the Garfield strips book number 51 continues on the high quality humor and sarcasm we've come to love from America's favorite fat cat! You won't be disappointed!

FILL 'ER UP Garfield believes in living life to the fullest. No easy task for a cat with a bottomless stomach. In this latest collection of comics, the fat cat with the legendary appetite treats himself to seconds, thirds, fourths, and fifths and proves that anything worth eating is worth overeating.

About the Author Jim Davis was born on July 28, 1945, in Marion, Indiana. He later attended Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, where he distinguished himself by earning one of the lowest cumulative grade point averages in the history of the university. (Incidentally, a fellow classmate named David Letterman earned the other). The Garfield strip was born on June 19, 1978, syndicated in forty-one U.S. newspapers. Today it's syndicated in more than 2,100 newspapers worldwide with more than 200 million readers, leading Guinness World Records to name Garfield The Most Widely Syndicated Comic Strip in the World. Davis has had many successes with Garfield, including four Emmy Awards for Outstanding Animated Program and induction into the Licensing Hall of Fame (1998), but his most prized awards are from his peers in the National Cartoonist Society: Best Humor Strip (1981 and 1985), the Elzie Segar Award (1990), and the coveted Reuben Award (1990) for overall excellence in cartooning.
