The theme and design are completely original and different from any other adult coloring product out there. The designs are so beautifully drawn, but not overwhelming to color. And I love that the author included a second set so you can try a design a different way. Great product!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Review of Glamourista Coloring BookBy Nola HintzellIf I had to choose one word to describe this coloring book, I would say "elegant". The images feature fashionable women (some in vintage hats and clothing), gemstone jewelry such as brooches and pendants, and all are sheer elegance. The cover image is a very good representation of the type of images you will find in this book. The images are printed on one side only, which is also really nice. This is a beautiful coloring book! 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I have this book and love it! (Retired -is there such a thing?-Gemologist)By Jody Ann SavageWhat a wonderful book! Great illustrations to color or scan and import to color Digitally!Either way, a great value for your $$.

Each sequential drawing is Influenced by the fashion of that time. Beginning with the rise of Modernism in the early part of the 20th century – these pages are inspired by the screen sirens of the “Roaring Twenties”, as well as beautiful feminine faces from the 1930’s and 1940’s. There are plenty of feather boas and Art Deco jewels to keep you busy. Moving into the mid-century era of the 1950’s through 1970’s, this time is signified by accessories from cat eye glasses and scarves to peasant tops and flowing hair. Finally, the last section of Glamourista highlights the “Big 80’s”, the 90’s and now. The last two decades of the 20th century were all about fun – the illustrations are over the top with geometric patterns and oversized jewelry. The featured trends of the the present include street fashion, sparkling jewels, fashion styling derived from cultures around the world, and inspiration from haute couture! Colored pencils are recommended, but markers may be used with blotter pages or card stock placed beneath.

About the AuthorJennifer declared herself an artist in grade school and has never looked back. She graduated from University of Michigan School of Art and spent time studying at the Art Center College of Design in California, with a focus on illustration. Later in life, she received her master's degree in education. Since college, she has worked as a professional artist and educator – for almost two decades. Jennifer enjoys drawing by hand, creating digital graphics and illustrations, and painting. She adores creating art in many styles and in various mediums with subjects such as animals, all things modern, and people. Jennifer’s happiest days are spent outdoors with family, when there is plentiful sunshine!
