Doug Pike : Gone with the Wine: The Wine Cartoons of Doug Pike before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Gone with the Wine: The Wine Cartoons of Doug Pike:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. DisappointedBy fdavidnA few made me laugh but most weren't that funny. I bought two thinking I would gift one but I didn't; I thought it was embarrassingly bad.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Full bodied wine humour!By HeemanshuRead it over a few times and still brings a chuckle when it reminds me the time I have been a wine snob. Shared it with friends over some wine tastings, they love it!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. giftBy GrannyThis was a gift to my nephew who loves, and knows a lot about fine wine. He said he liked it, so I guess he did.

Doug Pike, the acclaimed cartoonist of RobertParker.com, the website of wine-czar Robert M. Parker Jr., wields his rapier wit at the native inhabitants of the wacky world of wine in this collection of 100 of his best-loved works. Topics include the winemaker at work, the he retail experience, wine fright, the domestic front, and the waiters dilemma.

"Doug has a real feel for the psyche of the serious wine nut (and his/her long suffering spouse) and never fails to poke fun at them with a deft hand and his own trademark brand of humour." --Robert M. Parker, Jr., *The Wine Advocate*About the AuthorDoug Pike is an award-winning cartoonist. His work has been featured in numerous publications, including the Wall Street Journal. He is the author and illustrator of The Grapes of Laugh. Robert M. Parker, Jr. is a leading wine critic known for his 100-point wine rating scale.
