GrunertI did not know what to expect. This book is cute.

A collection of funny sayings with southern country roots. We hope this book brings you and your family lots of laughter and joy. We also hope it will bring back some fond memories of the good old days of your youth. Weather your grandma was sweet, kind and quiet or fiesty and loud we're sure you'll find a quote or two from your grandma. You will want to share these with everyone you know.

About the AuthorJeffery and Debra were both born in North Western Indiana. As children they moved to Western Kentucky with their families. Jeffery graduated from Drakesboro High School and Debra from Muhlenberg Central. Jeffery taught school for five years before changing careers again. While teaching he met and married his true love, Debra. God was always putting them on the same path and they finally realized this. They live in Western Kentucky where they raise their children and enjoy their life together. Jeffery has also written "I Read It On A Church Sign". A compilation of funny and serious church sign messages.
