From the city that brought us Rocky, cheese steaks, and soft pretzels, comes "Gravy Wars: South Philly Foods, Feuds Attitudes," a humorous narrative about the Italian-American culture. Laugh out loud as you read the truth about Italian traditions and superstitions, and discover a slew of scrumptious original recipes that will help you win your own kitchen competitions. Best-selling Author Lisa Scottoline calls Gravy Wars "Charming and heartwarming, and an authentic echo of growing up Italian-American. Ranalli is the real deal, and it shows!" "Gravy Wars | South Philly Foods, Feuds Attitudes" captures the essence of Philadelphia. We have the ability to debate, argue, and dissect the most mundane topics but always we keep our hearts open to our greatest strengths: family and friendships. - Phil Martelli, Head Coach St. Joseph's University Men's Basketball and author of Don't Call Me Coach: A Lesson Plan for Life
