By Lito Keaton A great collection of American Regional Recipes gathered from various regions of the United States all together in one whimsical and fun Cook Book that was inspired by the late, great Jack Lemmon's character of former U.S. President, Russell Kramer from the 1996 political comedy, "My Fellow Americans". I have enjoyed these kinds of comedy films, and I'm glad that I was able to order, and own a little piece of memorabilia from this film! I also own the film itself on DVD! Preparing a delicious dish from this kaleidoscope of tantalizing regional cuisines, as well as watching the film itself, really puts me in such a patriotic state of mind and appreciation for being an American Citizen, and living in such a diverse and great nation such as ours! 0 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Cookbook By Grandma's Little Girl I actually ordered the wrong book - got this instead of the "Hail to the Chef" that I wanted. This had some good recipes, but overall I wouldn't have ordered it. However, it was so inexpensive that I kept it and will recycle by donating to my local library. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great cookbook By C. Bedford Crenshaw I have been a big fan of the movie, and did not discover until yesterday that this book was published. Sprinkled with fun anecdotes from the Kramer character, this has many wonderful recipes for one to enjoy.

The companion cookbook for Warner Brothers' charming and hilarious new movie, My Fellow Americans, co-starring Jack Lemmon, James Garner, Lauren Bacall, and Dan Ackroyd, Hail to the Chef! offers a humorous salute to the palate featuring recipes for more than 100 favorite American dishes. of photos.

Hail To The Chef!: A Taste Of Power is a delightful collection of American regional recipes divided into five sections and offering regional specialties from the West Coast, the Southwest, the South, the Midwest, and New England, and the Mid-Atlantic. From the northeast's "Maryland Crabcakes" to the south's "Virginia Peanut Soup", to mid-America's "Meat and Potatoes Loaf" and "Corn Custard", to the southwest's "New Mexican Chocolate Cake", to the west coast's "Sourdough Bread", "Grapefruit Avocado Salad", and "Carlo's Chocolate Earthquake Cake", Hail to the Chef! reflects the regional and culinary traditions that make American cuisine the diverse blessing for the discerning diner that it is. Sure to delight armchair cooks and practicing chefs, Hail to the Chef! also includes sixteen pages of "My Fellow Americans" movie out takes. -- Midwest Book
