Cat Lovers vs. Other PeopleBy TeriIf you're a cat person, you will simply LOVE this little book.If you aren't buy it and give it a cat person, they will love you for it.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Very funny bookBy Dima GalkinI bought this book for my aunt, who is Jewish, sings for a living, and has two cats. She loved the book. I would recommend it to anyone who has a good sense of humor, especially if he or she is familiar with traditional Jewish songs.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Constance StewartA very cute gift and the perfect gift for my Jewish cat lover sister in law.

They're back! The same cats that added joy and mayhem to familiar Christmas carols are now ready to celebrate Hanukkah and other Jewish holidays with 20 hilarious new parodies. From "Have a Burrito" ("Have Nagila") to "Kmart, Kmart" ("Kmeh, Kmeh"), these are the songs that reveal the true feline meaning of celebration: food, naps, petting, and more food. Each set of lyrics is delightfully illustrated, and all are carefully synchronized to their better-known counterparts. So hum a few bars, and get a new perspective on the holiday -- and cat -- you thought you knew. Oy!

"Witty and whimsical, the lyrics will make anyone who's ever shared their abode with a feline chuckle, and Gemma Correll's illustrations cleverly capture the spirit of felines participating in holiday festivities in their own special way." - Retail Insight
