Five for Christmas gifts and one for me.To be fair, I'm biased. I love puns. But really this is a great book.The puns are clever and the illustrations are beautifully done.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. ADORABLY ILLUSTRATED and great little puns!!By denverkatI bought this for my autistic 11 year old grandson. He loves puns and this is such a sweet book for him. He reads it over and over. I found it as someone I work with has it on the corner of her desk so when you stop to chat with her you can flip through the pun book. If you have someone in your life who loves or even just likes puns a little get them this book. It is very well illustrated as well!! Thanks.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. cute read, nice artwork, well madeBy BusyOneMy 18 year old son loves puns. I purchased this for his birthday. The artwork is really nice. The pages, binding, and cover are durable. The book is made better than I expected.

Artist Frida Clements playfully combines colorfully detailed flora and fauna drawings with funny hand-lettered wordplay in this collection of beautifully illustrated puns. Honey, bee yourself! Gopher it. Don't be koi. Like puns? That's coo, says the pigeon. Hate puns? Birch, please. Bringing a giggle (and sometimes a groan) with each inspired page, this clever volume makes a lovely and lighthearted gift for fans of witty humor and illustration. Having a bad hare day? Feeling a little antsy? What the hail, just dill with it, and for fox sake, have a little pun.
