Derek 'Del Boy' Trotter : He Who Dares before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised He Who Dares:

Jack-the-lad, wheeler-dealer, and international playboy (just ask the manageress of El Sid's, Torremolinos, 1978), this was a man destined for greatness. One day he would mature into an award-winning man of business, thriving entrepreneur and glittering member of the jet-set. A force of nature, a man who beat the odds, if only for a bit. This is his story. The story of Derek 'Del Boy' Trotter. Who else could tell the glorious tale of rags to riches to rags to rich(ish) but the man himself? You've heard of The Wolf of Wall Street, now meet the Pug of Peckham. Trotter's Independent Traders, employee of the year 1982 - 2003. [He Who Dares has been written by the family of John Sullivan, creator and writer of Only Fools and Horses, who sadly died in 2011. Ebury Press have produced and published the book with full support and involvement of the family.]

"surprisingly poignant...an enjoyable read" * Daily Express * "His voice comes across effortlessly and it's hard not to warm to this poor man's Richard Branson as his charm wafts off the page." * Daily Express * "serves as a fitting tribute to Only Fools writer John Sullivan" * Daily Express * About the Author Derek Trotter, aka Del Boy, spent the 1980s and early 1990s working as a market trader before his luck changed in 1996 when an antique watch hidden in his garage turned out to be worth millions. Sadly, Derek lost everything in the stock market crash in 2001, but his entrepreneurial spirit has never wavered. This is his first book . . . about time, too.
