That said, I love this stuff and recommend to anyone who loves the "funnies". A true Classic!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Favorite stripBy Steven A. Dunnagandescription was accurate, arrived promptly. In pretty good shape for such an old item. Glad i can still get it, a family have2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. First B.C.By Mark S. SlaterThis compilation is of the first B.C. cartoons (1959) in the Fawcett edition. In this book we are introduced to the main characters. The drawings, crude at this point, only add to the pre-historic theme. A must-have for fans of the strip!

The wildly improbable history of a stone-age adventurer! Hey! B.C. Are you for real? What are you--the caveman's thinking man's thinking man? A neanderthal nebish? Bone-age beatnik? Or what? Nevermind. The New York Herald Tribune says you and all those other missing-link characters you hang out with are "a great and hilarious pleasure." And Newsweek says you are "one of the country's hottest comic strips." Man, you got it made. You're so far out you're back in. We dig you, B.C. Us cats up here in the 20th century. And, boy, do you ever dig us!
