The Christmas Redneck travels to the trailer park in his beat-up pickup with eight hound dogs to deliver his presents!

From the Inside Flap David Davis, who studied fine art at Stephen F. Austin University in Texas, is a member of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators. With Trucker's Night Before Christmas and Nurse's Night Before Christmas, also published by Pelican, Davis established himself as a writer of humor that appeals to both children and adults. His third book from Pelican, Jazz Cats, was a Children's Book Choice for 2002 and an Accelerated Reader Program selection. He lives in Fort Worth, Texas. James Rice has illustrated Pelican Publishing Company's best-selling Night Before Christmas series for more than thirty years. Widely acclaimed as the South's leading illustrator of juvenile books, Mr. Rice is the illustrator and/or author of more than sixty titles, with almost two million copies in print. Rice was born on a farm in Coleman County, Texas, and currently resides in Hico, Texas. He has taught art at the grammar-school, high-school, and university levels and enjoys talking to schoolchildren across the country about writing and art. About the Author David Davis is the author of almost a dozen books with Pelican, including Jazz Cats, a 2002 Children's Book Choice selection; Librarian's Night Before Christmas; Nurse's Night Before Christmas; Ten Redneck Babies: A Southern Counting Book; Texas Aesop's Fables; Texas Mother Goose; and Texas Zeke and the Longhorn. Four of his books have earned spots on the Accelerated Reader list. He resides in Fort Worth, Texas. Author/illustrator James Rice (1934-2004) produced sixty books, including the illustrations for Pelican's treasured The Night Before Christmas Series. Rice's first book, the well-loved classic Cajun Night Before Christmas, has more than 750,000 copies in print. Young readers can enjoy more of Gaston's adventures in Gaston Goes to Mardi Gras and sample Rice's other children's stories with favorites such as Texas Jack at the Alamo. With more than 1.5 million copies of his books in print, Rice ranks among the nation's best-selling creators of children's books, receiving awards from Printer Industries of America and the Children's Book Council, among others. Years after his death, Rice's family found the art and text Gaston Joins the Circus, and this discovery has brought Gaston back for one more adventure!
