This adult coloring book makes a beautiful companion to Shannon's new book, Control Girl. God never intended you to carry the burden of trying to control everything. Though most of us would agree God is in control, we find ourselves living as if he needed a little assistance from us. Let us entice you to a different perspective. Inside these pages, you'll be invited to surrender to an all-powerful, loving God. As you find a restful place to color and reflect on the truths contained here, you'll find peace soaking into your very soul.

Janyre Tromp is an editor for Kregel Publications by day, and a writer and artist at night. Unfortunately she spilled coffee on her supercape and then the dryer ate it. So you'll have to just imagine that she can do it all! Janyre blogs regularly on her own blog as well as the Dove Parenting blog. In addition to her current project (a full length WWII novel), she has three traditionally published books- a juvenile fiction, That Sinking Feeling, and two board books in the All About God's Animals series. Janyre first tried Zentangling alongside her artistic daughter and was surprised to find that she was actually good at it.
