Do you need to refocus on what's important for the road ahead? Refocused will help you remember who God is, who you are, and what he's called you to focus on in this season. This illustrated, coloring book bible study takes you on a visionary journey through scripture to remind you of your treasured identity in Christ and the good plans he has for you to fulfill during this season of your life. It's perfect for women of all ages! Each day of this short, six day study has a scripture reading, reflective questions, visionary planning with purpose, and a prayer prompt to to engage you in as you color an illustration that brings the scripture to life. It ends with an inspiring planning exercise to set goals for the year ahead with passion and purpose! It includes group discussion questions, and more resources can be found at RefocusedBibleStudy.com
