A great gift for for yourself (or someone else!)By Yesterdaisy'Reigning Cats and Dogs' is an impressive book; entertaining for people of all ages to read because it encompasses a wealth of biographical facts about the lives of famous people, from athletes to actors to politicians to poets to musicians, and beyond--all with a very clever and always highly amusing feline or canine twist, which you may have to think about a little at times to decipher! That makes all the more fun to read and share. ;) The full-color, full-page illustrations are adorable cartoons of realistic anthropomorphized animals (incidentally, it's certain to please the furry as well as the average person!) Two thumbs way up for this terrific gift idea. I got it as a birthday present from someone who knew I was an animal lover, and it turned out to appeal to many other interests of mine as well. Always a cute one to flip through and to read. The punny name and title parodies found throughout can just crack you up.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A Hillariouly Clever BookBy A Customer"Reigning Cats and

Dogs," is a clever outlook at what some of our favorite and least liked celebrities would be like if they were canine-ized. The author uses his drawing talent to bring these anthropomorphic celebrity dogs and cats to life, using an almost British styled humor. Read about The Beatles, I mean, The Beagles, and read about other well known entertainers and journalists. Now, the only problem seems to be how to get these pictures framed and on your wall. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. superb illustrations By A Customer I do think that this book was well thought out and cleverly written and I am amazed that this man's talent has not been recognized further

In Reigning Cats and Dogs cartoonist Michael Hingley gives some of history's most well-known personalities new incarnations--as cats and dogs. Each hilarious drawing is accompanied by a brief, revised biography. Finally, we can glimpse the extraordinary lives of four-legged celebrities such as George St. Bernard Shaw, Joe Cocker Spaniel and David Setterman. Michael Hingley is a cartoonist and illustrator from England.
