Paul Provenza, Dan Dion : Satiristas: Comedians, Contrarians, Raconteurs Vulgarians before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Satiristas: Comedians, Contrarians, Raconteurs Vulgarians:

Trundy As a Stand-up Comic, when someone asks me for a good read on the subject, this is the first book I recommend. Paul Provenza and Dan Dion have spun a jewel with Satiristas. In my opinion the single best book on comedy put together. Interviews from the greatest comics ever, all in one place. There's an amazing feel of flow here... I have bought 18 copies and handed them all out. There's no better recommendation for a book than having to continuously buy it because you love it so much that you keep giving it away to people because you know they should read it. Buy it!

With all the cookie-cutter comedic trash going around, this book leads you to the genuine, intelligent, thought-provoking artist that won't sell out!

review helpful. Great book for die-hard comedy lovers
By ErinIt couldn't get any better than this - a Q A book with some of comedy's big players including Carlin, Lewis Black, Greg Giraldo, Matt Stone / Trey Parker and more. It's more than just stand-up, it's downright anyone who's made an impression on the way we laugh. GREAT book for any comedy lover, highly recommended.

Featuring our greatest comedic minds on the nature of humor, its relevance in society—and why sometimes you just need a good dirty joke to cleanse the palate—Satiristas is a hilarious multi-voiced manifesto on satire and comedy presented by Paul Provenza, co-creator of The Aristocrats.

“Satiristas! reveals the method and the madness of men and women who inhabit the funny side of the commentariat.” (Los Angeles Times)“Humor heavyweights discussing satire and social change in their craft...A wealth of intimate, and, at times, surprising discussions...A cultural critique of comedy as an art form.” (Time Out Chicago)“A brilliant, wildly inventive new book that is comedic magic. It features interviews with and portraits of some of the biggest comedians ever.” (Los Angeles Herald Examiner)“Glimpses into the minds of some of the sharpest, most insightful and revolutionary voices in entertainment. They surprise, they challenge, they may even offend you, but every word is worth your time and attention. Read it. You won’t regret it.” (Sacramento Book)
From the Back CoverOur nation's finest comedians, contrarians, and comic subversives come together to discuss the nature of humor, its relevance to society, and how simply speaking the truth as one sees it can give life meaningWe are living in a new golden age of satire. In a nation divided, polarized, and cynical of "official" news and information, it's no surprise that more young people get their news today from Jon Stewart and Stephen Colbert than from 60 Minutes and CNN—the people who speak the most openly and fearlessly are our satirists. Politics and culture are analyzed, criticized, scandalized, and energized by comedians with no agenda other than to create the laughter and shock that comes from recognition and truth.Perhaps the greatest collection of comic talents ever between two covers, Satiristas! is a collaboration between Paul Provenza—comedy's insider inquisitor extraordinaire, director/co-creator of the film The Aristocrats, and star of Showtime's The Green Room with Paul Provenza—and Dan Dion, comedy's most celebrated portrait photographer. A virtual who's who of iconoclastic comedy, the book is an epic, hilarious, multivoiced manifesto on satire and comedy, and a revelatory study of the complexities and inner workings of the comic mind. Balancing on the razor's edge of communicating important ideas without pretense or condescension, political comedians Stephen Colbert, Bill Maher, and Lewis Black weigh in with late-night monologists Jay Leno and Craig Ferguson. Veterans like Conan O'Brien, Robin Williams, Richard Lewis, and Roseanne Barr speak their minds alongside comedy legends such as the Smothers Brothers, Tom Lehrer, Lily Tomlin, and the late, great George Carlin. Also represented are creators, writers, and producers of The Daily Show, South Park, Mr. Show, This Is Spinal Tap, Wonder Showzen, Kids in the Hall, Freaks and Geeks, Superbad, The Simpsons, Monty Python's Flying Circus, and Saturday Night Live as well as fresh, up-and-coming talents and a new generation of comedy stars. Together, this cross-section of subversive comic artists offers insight into what drives them and makes them tick, and what drives them crazy and ticks them off.Paul Provenza's casual, intimate, artist-to-artist interviews are intelligent, outrageous, controversial, and even downright sick—but no idea or opinion is censored, and the unabashed honesty that results is funny, thought-provoking and inspirational.The intimate photographic portraits by Dan Dion, comedy's Richard Avedon, are art pieces that take us through the stand-up routine to the person underneath, making Satiristas! something that will change the way you look at comedians and the art of comedy.
