Shit List: The little paperback journal that lets you bring steaming piles of poop with you everywhere you go:

Shit List is the little paperback journal that lets you bring steaming piles of poop with you everywhere you go. Inside, there are no plain, old boring lines -- instead, tiny piles of shit dance across the page, alternating with itty bitty rolls of toilet paper. At 5 x 8" and 125 pages, Shit List is small enough to tuck in your bag, purse, or even pocket. Can be used as an actual shit list or as a notepad, journal, or to-do list. Great to have around in public bathrooms since pages can be torn out and used to wipe!
