By Phil Osepher This book like all the ones that I have read of Jeff MacNelly has great material. This book however is on the short side. Although if you're a Cubs fan or a Baseball fan it probably will be more sentimental to you, for it seems to capture the Joy that baseball brings along with the frustrations and false hopes. But over all I believe that for how short it is the material is strong enough to hold its own.

For the first time, Jeff MacNelly's baseball cartoons are collected in one book. Here is the whole Shoe cast of characters well-known to readers: Perfesser Cosmo Fishhawk and his nephew Skyler, P. Martin Shoemaker, Roz, Loon, and others. A hit with baseball fans everywhere.
