Don Laubach, Mark Henckel : Short in the Saddle: And Other Wild Tales of the Outdoors before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Short in the Saddle: And Other Wild Tales of the Outdoors:

A lovelorn country donkey named Hernandez? The night of the mushroom people? It's not always the biggest fish or biggest game that you remember about days in the outdoors. It's the funny stuff that happens along the way. Veteran outdoor authors Don Laubach and Mark Henckel share some of those humorous tales in this new release, illustrated with the cartoons of John Potter. Guaranteed to make you laugh.
